Linn's 2001 US Stamp Yearbook George Amick

In 2001, the U.S. Postal Service issued more than 150 major collectible varieties of postage stamps and postal stationery. The Linns U.S. Stamp Yearbook 2001 tells the story of each one. The 424-page reference, with nearly 700 pictures, provides readers with an abundance of proposed designs that the Citizens Stamp Advisory Committee considered before reaching its final decisions, along with artists original source material. You will find it all in unprecedented detail, why each item was issued, how its design was developed and what problems accompanied it. It is information unavailable in any other published work.
