No Strings Attached (Against all odds Book 1) Susanne Lincke

When Laura Hailey comes to London for her first season she only wants to return to her quiet life in the country. But when fate leaves her alone and at the mercy of Matthew Greaves, Earl of Redding, how will she be able to save her siblings and her family's barony when all she can think of is the Earl himself?

After the sudden death of his father Matthew Greaves dedicated his life to the management of his estates and fortune. But when Laura Hailey bursts into his rational life with a daring offer he cannot seem to refuse, will he be able to honor their agreement even when it turns out that there is so much more at stake than what he is willing to risk?

Second revised edition.
