O lado bom da vida (Portuguese Edition) Matthew Quick

Pat Peoples, um ex-professor de história na casa dos 30 anos, acaba de sair de uma instituição psiquiátrica. Convencido de que passou apenas alguns meses naquele "lugar ruim", Pat não se lembra do que o fez ir para lá. O que sabe é que Nikki, sua esposa, quis que ficassem um "tempo separados".

Tentando recompor o quebra-cabeças de sua memória, agora repleta de lapsos, ele ainda precisa enfrentar uma realidade que não parece muito promissora. Com seu pai se recusando a falar com ele, sua esposa negando-se a aceitar revê-lo e seus amigos evitando comentar o que aconteceu antes de sua internação, Pat, agora um viciado em exercícios físicos, está determinado a reorganizar as coisas e reconquistar sua mulher, porque acredita em finais felizes e no lado bom da vida.

À medida que seu passado aos poucos ressurgiu em sua memória, Pat começa a entender que "é melhor ser gentil que ter razão" e faz dessa convicção sua meta. Tendo a seu lado o excêntrico (mas competente) psiquiatra Dr. Patel e Tiffany, a irmã viúva de seu melhor amigo, Pat descobrirá que nem todos os finais são felizes, mas que sempre vale a pena tentar mais uma vez.

Um livro comovente sobre um homem que acredita na felicidade, no amor e na esperança.

"Matthew Quick constrói tantas situações absurdas, permeadas por sentimentos tão verdadeiros, que é impossível não torcer por seu improvável herói." People Magazine

"É difícil não se emocionar com o destino de um homem que, apesar das muitas provações, ainda tenta acreditar na esperança e na fidelidade, enquanto trava uma batalha para recuperar sua sanidade mental." The Wall Street Journal

"Pat é adorável, e sua história de vida pouco convencional tem tudo para se tornar um best-seller." Publishers Weekly

Best-seller da Veja
