Two weeks from her 23rd birthday, Nicki Delgado is preparing to inherit her sizable trust fund. She is unaware that it will be accompanied by magical powers and entrance into the oldest and most notorious criminal organization. The delivery of a box containing priceless magical objects leads to murder and the unusual talent for Nicki to alter conservative penny loafers into black stiletto boots with the intent to entice. In particular, Nicki's coworker, Antonio, cannot free himself from the insatiable thoughts that her new boots plant in his head. Since he is already assigned as an undercover FBI agent to befriend her and gain access to the underworld organization the agency strives to destroy, his passionate desire to seduce his target makes the job a delicious one. Antonio is beginning to realize that he no longer considers Nicki to be just an assignment. He yearns to possess her. But, how could a top FBI agent yield to true love with the woman intended to lead the largest criminal organization in the world?
