Juicio Final (Spanish Edition) John Katzenbach

Matthew Cowart, un famoso y ya establecido periodista de Miami, recibe la carta de un hombre condenado a muerte que asegura ser inocente. Pese a su escepticismo inicial, Cowart empieza a investigar el caso, comprende que el acusado no cometió los delitos que se le imputan y pone al descubierto mediante sus artículos una información que permite al convicto Robert Earl Ferguson salir en libertad. Cowart obtiene entonces un premio Pulitzer por su tarea periodística. Sin embargo, y para su horror, el escritor se percató de que ha puesto en marcha una tremenda máquina de matar y que ahora le toca a él intentar, en una carrera contrarreloj, que se haga justicia fuera de los tribunales. Katzenbach, maestro del suspense psicológico nos enfrenta de nuevo a una historia tan hipnótica como aquellas de El psicoanalista y La historia del loco. / Matt Cowart doesn't believe the claims of innocence by death row inmate Ferguson. But the more he digs into the case, the more he believes that, as a black man, Ferguson is a victim of hate and prejudice, and that the wrong man is going to be executed.
