A FULL LENGTH 40,000 word novel with NO Cliffhanger - Contains hot & explicit scenes that leave little to the imagination - 18+

Razor: I was a gung ho, God-and-country Navy SEAL until my buddy went down in some shithole in Afghanistan. Full of bitterness and having the option to retire from active duty, I took it. My love of motorcycles led me into a new life where I met up with the Silent Brotherhood. Because of my background, I was recruited to a team of silent killers that only answered to one man.

Kelly: I have always loved bad boys. “The badder the better” was my motto. To me there were no boys badder than those who straddled a Harley Davidson. I had fallen for a well known biker, until he beat me up and made me realize that I needed to start a new lifestyle.

I was doing pretty well until I ran into another bad boy who—I’m sure you didn’t see this coming—swept me off my feet. He was shrouded in mystery, but he was still everything that I wanted, and I couldn’t help but follow my heart.

Sabre: I was known as someone who didn’t always follow the rules. When one of my boys wound up dead by the hand of a professional, I wondered if it was a rival club or if I was being sent a message. Either way, I chose to ignore the message and send one of my own. I’d carved out my territory and I had no plans to see it fade away, even if I had to destroy a rival club to do it.
