Critical Thinking: 22 Amazing Tips on How to Develop Yaour Own Strategies and Improve Your Critical Thinking (Critical Thinking, Critical Thinking books, critical thinking skills) Wayne Powell
Critical thinking is now an essential skill in any workplace. From job adverts to university applications, a need to be able to think critically is often now a standard requirement. Over ninety-five percent of FTSE 100 companies will ask job applicants to undertake a psychometric test as part of the hiring process and critical thinking is one of the tests that will appear for a great number and variety of roles from researchers to managers, from teachers to social workers.

It is vital, therefore, to get ahead of the game by taking time daily to develop your critical thinking skills in order to stand out from the crowd. Beyond this, the skills of a critical thinker can be carried into your daily life to help you deal with problems more effectively and with more success and to develop stronger relationships with those around you.

This eBook is an essential guide for anyone taking a first look into the world of critical thinking. It outlines the key qualities of a critical thinker and gives helpful tips and advice throughout on how to adapt your mentality to a more critical way of thinking for more success in the workplace and home.

This eBook includes two sections:

- Part 1 - Critical Thinking for Problem Solving, Job Interviews and Psychometric Tests
- Part 2 - Critical Thinking for Daily Life

Read on to find out more about what makes a critical thinker and how you can adapt the way you think to achieve your own ambitions in your career and personal life.
