Jerrod has now stepped into his calling and the Middleton household has finally calmed down. Even though his home is stress free, ministry is another story. Jerrod will see if he is fit to pastor a flock or will he fold in the process and throw in the towel. Nia is settling in as a mother of four and a First Lady. Nia has always been the one to keep the family together and make sure everyone is happy, but who will make sure she is happy. Battling between her parents that raised her and her biological parents, she finds herself finding out secrets she never wanted to know. Will she still remain the innocent and modest Nia that we grew to love?

Monica has finally learned her lesson from being shot by Nia, she starts an Narcotics Anonymous program and is doing quite well until her pass slaps her in the face once again.

How will she respond, now that she has given her life over to Christ?

Prepare yourself for the final ride with the Middleton's and Stevenson's. The only way a family can stick together is if they pray.
