Are you still living in Mom's basement? Sick of being a 30 year old man still asking Dad for an allowance? Have you been wondering why the chicks aren't impressed with your level 75 wizard in World of WarCraft? If this is you, then I'm afraid you have one of the deadliest psychological and spiritual diseases of our time: Peter Pan Syndrome.

Fortunately, my good man, there is a cure. This short e-book is a practical guide to help young men (or not-so-young men) leave the world of extended adolescence and finally take the journey toward genuine manhood.

You'll find tips for finding a mentor, getting a job (you know, so you won't be asking Dad for an allowance), settling down with that sweet ole gal down the block, and how to be a benefit to society at large. Everything you need to move beyond being a middle-aged boy who can shave!

So, what are you waiting for, boys! Buy the book! Today, you become a man!

Michael is a professional author of both fiction and non-fiction works, spanning a wide variety of topics and genres. From books about manhood, freelance writing, and acing a job interview, to comic books, screenplays, short stories, and novels. He has been writing professionally for over 7 years now.

Michael was born and raised in Miami County Ohio, and continues to live with his wife and two children.
