Are you ready for the finale of Never Thought I'd Love A Dope Boy?

While former federal agent Karrington “Keri” Young is fighting for her life and that of her triplets, her fiancé is trying to reevaluate his position in the streets. The more pain, betrayal, and lies that surround him, the further the notorious Dreaux Newsome pulls away from the man above. And you know what they say...a man without faith is a man lost. Enlisting the assistance of his younger brother Ace, Dreaux gradually tries to separate the man he is at home from the kingpin he is in the streets. But after receiving one devastating blow after another, he quickly finds out that old habits die hard.

Will he really be able to walk away from it all?

Will Keri and the babies survive?

Will the lovebirds make it down the aisle?
