Jenny is a beautiful, pure and passionate painter from the hills of Pennsylvania. Her life is going nowhere until she meets John, a noble, hard working man with a passion for building houses.

Jenny takes an instant disliking to John and the wild and harsh ways he learnt during his years spent cutting wood.

However, when a wild horse tries to squash Jenny, John springs to the rescue. Jenny begins to notice that John is actually rather sweet at heart. They are magnetically drawn to each other. Jenny does not know what is happening to her. Jenny and John disappear together that evening...

Pressures of John's family take them apart for a while. When Jenny realised she is bearing a secret that could destroy her, she needs to talk to John in a hurry.

Running Away From Fate is a Collection of stand alone short stories with a happy ending.
