(Note: this book contains profanity and violent situations. If you are not comfortable with that, this is not the book for you. This book is NOT for young readers.)

Retired from the CSA for five years, Adam and Abbey's peaceful existence is interrupted by a visit from one of Adam's old military buddies, Daniel Manning. Agreeing to help in locating a supposed terrorist, Adam finds himself victim to a sinister plot, and separated from Abbey, leaving her vulnerable.

With Adam out of town, Abbey is led into a trap and kidnapped. Shocking secrets are revealed when she comes face to face with her mysterious rescuer--an ex Special Forces sergeant. Furious at Adam's never-ending secrets and finding herself increasingly drawn to her new ally, Abbey re-evaluates the future of her marriage.

Frustrated by the CSA's ineffectiveness, Adam goes around Commander Paul Cooke to get the job done and push back their enemies. As the current and the former Commanders struggle for power, Tom Winston reveals the identity of the person spearheading Manning's organization--a terrible truth that sends Abbey off the deep end. All bets are off as she loses control and unleashes her full power. Only one person has the strength to stop her.

With the enemy gunning for Abbey and her new ally, and vowing to take back the city, the future of the CSA rests on the edge of a knife. Adam does what must be done, risking his own life and his marriage as he goes head-to-head with an enemy who is every bit as ruthless and formidable as he is.
