The Fury of Dracula: A Boardgame of Gothic Horror Stephen Hand

The Fury of Dracula is a boardgame in the gothic horror tradition for 2-4 players. Set in 1898, eight years after the events depicted in Bram Stoker's classic novel, the game is a battle of wills, the rules allowing players to concentrate on the many strategies available to them. It features a unique hidden movement system and exciting blow by blow combat rules which enable players to get involved in the most dramatic struggles of life and death... and beyond!
