What would you do if your cheeky alter ego had more fun than you did?

Three years after Jane's fiancé cheated on her, she's finally ready for some serious bedroom action, but she has one problem—she doesn't do casual encounters.

So what does a good girl from the country do? She dresses into a sexy little costume and pretends to be someone she is not - Memphis. But things don't always go to plan and with each hilariously, horny romp she learns more about herself than she ever expected.

In her cheeky Memphis disguise, Jane soars into unexplored sexual territory. But will this long awaited experience be everything she anticipated it to be?

“Jane is like so many women in the real world. We all want that power and gratification. This story was both erotic and liberating.”5 STARS MHamilton
