The Book of Secrets: A Millicent Anderson Mystery (Millicent Anderson Mysteries) (Volume 2) Sylvia A. Nash

Someone had a secret to kill for. Now the secret keeper is dead, and the Book of Secrets is missing. Grief turns to fear and suspicion as six childhood friends try to protect their secrets and avoid the consequences of choices they made years ago. The task of protecting their lives falls to Millicent Anderson, philosophy professor turned sleuth. To complete her task, Millicent must find the book, expose the secrets, and identify the killer with little help and much resistance from the friends she is trying to protect. "Secrets are similar to seeds buried in the ground. They remain under but near the surface until the moment they burst through and become more than they were, whether weed or flower. What will you do then?"
