James Holland has all the basics covered and his life, as usual, is on track.

That is until he meets her—Lana Webber.

Then everything falls apart, as he falls for her.

Along the way to losing his heart for the first time, he manages to fulfill a bargain he made a long time ago in a bar in Nashville where he left a dream.

But she has skills at ruining lives, she's mastered them destroying her own, and she's the last thing he needs in his life.

Try telling that to his heart as he finds himself more and more drawn to the girl deemed by all as unlovable.

And as hard as he tries not to be interested, the closer he gets to her the worse it is.

She is nothing like what she is portrayed in the public eye.

Lana Webber is the girl every guy claims to have had.

But she doesn't care what people say about her.

She has fun.

At least she did until everyone started saying she had it coming.

But this time—she didn't.

For the first time ever, Lana is innocent but her past has her guilty before anyone even hears her side.

Betrayed, ditched, and humiliated—Lana discovers the road to redemption lies in a dirty secret.

THE James Holland, soccer star and smug womanizer, isn't quite what he's portrayed to be.

When she blackmails him into seeing things her way she gets more than she bargained for.
