Josiah Beran gave his bawdy sons one year to find a mate and start giving him grandchildren. By some stroke of magic, they followed his command, but his six sons and their mates are spread out across the country.

In this brief, emotional epilogue, all of the Beran clan returns for one momentous, dramatic event. The whole Red Lodge Bears series is wrapped up with a lovely bow, drawing the curtain on these beloved characters.

This book is very short, intended as a series of scenes to complete the journey of the Red Lodge Bears. It is not intended as a standalone story.
