Meanwhile Back At the Rescue Ranch: The Dog Days of Cousin Nancy Nancy Parker-Simons

This is the second book about the Utopia Animal Rescue Ranch, a no-kill shelter, as seen through Cousin Nancy's eyes. Thirteen years ago, in 1998, Tony Simons, Kinky Friedman and Cousin Nancy started their beloved Utopia Animal Rescue Ranch at Cousin Nancy's mini-ranch in Utopia, Texas; they never dreamed that their little rescue ranch would grow so much, in numbers as well as fame, that it had to be moved in 2002 to Kinky Friedman's beautiful family ranch located in Medina, Texas. It is quickly becoming a Texas Hill Country legend. After Cousin Nancy wrote her first hilarious and sometimes heartbreaking book in 2006, "The Road To Utopia: How Kinky, Tony and I Saved More Animals Than Noah" for the University of Texas Press, she didn't stop writing about their incredible ranch, which has now saved more than 2,000 animals. The second book is a collection of Nancy Parker-Simons' favorite stories taken from her popular daily blog: "Cousin Nancy," describing her life at the rescue ranch from 2007 - 2008. In her collection of heartfelt stories, some of which are hilarious, and some of which are sad, she deftly glides the reader through a day in the life at the ranch. The animals and their stories captivate; her descriptions show the worst and the best of animal owners; her funny tales about Kinky Friedman, a dear friend and neighbor, add dimension.
