What if you had the courage to live fully in all the remaining days of your life? No settling. No guilt. No regrets. Meet Rachel Resnick, a woman eager to do just that - live fully, no regrets. Widowed, she ditches her safe, comfort zone life in Brooklyn and sets off to explore new possibilities in Williamsburg, Virginia. Alas, she gets dragged back to Brooklyn upon the sudden death of her favorite aunt. Rachel inherits all her possessions and finds eight uncut walnut-size diamonds hidden in an old suitcase in the attic. When it rains it pours - men that is. Three handsome suitors enter Rachel's world. Each one charming in his own unique way. Each one vying to kindle a love affair. Each with private plans of his own. Are any of them really who they claim to be? Will the diamonds hold the key to Rachel's future life or doom her to her own untimely death? How can Rachel use her newfound wealth in ways that honor her Aunt's memory? More importantly, can she finally experience the kind of love she's only read about in stories - a love that makes your toes curl and your heart sing.
