Six there shall be;

Six to see the seventh free.

Six to know the coming day;

Six to wake the fire.

Warrior, Singer, Seer;

Healer, Listener, Voice.

After rescuing the Gypsies from destruction, the warrior farmers of Pravik have returned home. But peace proves as dangerous as war—confined to the city and surrounded on all sides by enemies, they risk starving to death.

When emissaries arrive inviting the Ploughman to form an alliance with the Empire, he has no choice but to respond. He rides for Athrom along with Professor Huss, the Darkworld prince Harutek, and an unwilling Maggie. But in doing so, he ignores the vision of the blind seer Virginia Ramsey, who has seen deadly consequences at the end of the Ploughman's journey.

Desperate for help from another source, Virginia sets out on a journey of her own, accompanied by the Darkworld priestess Rehtse—a journey to find the King and bring him to Pravik's aid.

Their parallel journeys will at last open the way to the worlds unseen, bringing in powers, terrors, beauties, and a final confrontation no one could imagine.

Coming Day is the final book in The Seventh World Trilogy.
