Don't Mess with Jenny Lee Bill Lloyd

Zach Moss doesn't much like being a private investigator spying on errant spouses, but he would admit it has its intriguing moments. He gets more intrigue than he bargained for when he asks Jenny Lee to be his partner. The murder of a wayward spouse and a hundred million-dollar scam throws Moss and Jenny into the Byzantine world of a large corporation. It's not hard for them to imagine someone killing for one hundred million bucks. The murder turns out to be one of a series that began over twelve years before and still continues. Then Moss and Jenny connect the murders to one of Kansas City's leading citizens. As Jenny says about the leading citizen, 'that dude is several steps past weird'. As they dig further, they find the connection between the scam and murders unraveling. Several powerful people in the city reach the conclusion that Moss and Jenny are becoming a very serious problem. When two Chicago street soldiers arrive in town to fix their problem, Jenny Lee decides to take charge and dispenses her own form of justice.
