Journey into Holiness: Knowing the Holy Spirit Dow F. Robinson

Holiness cannot be understood apart from the Holy Spirit, and for a very long time, He has been the most neglected person of the Trinity. True, the Holy Spirit does not speak out of His own authority (that is, focusing on Himself); but that does not mean that He plays a passive behind-the-scenes role. Instead, we see the Spirit as active in destroying armies; appearing with smoke, fire and rain; manifesting a presence so still it was terrifying; and expressing directly the word of Jesus to believers and unbelievers alike. This unpredictable Spirit is the same one that Father gives us when we yield to Jesus' lordship. In this book we explore what it means to know the Spirit. He is the One who leads us on the journey into holiness, the path set for every follower of Jesus. A personal engagement with the Spirit of Holiness is the only way that Jesus designed for us to participate in the life of God.
