Socrates (469-399 B.C.) had episodes of what some called Epilepsy. Contemporary historians and his followers all concurred with the self-admitted fact that Socrates had visions of a Daemon who was with him since childhood and guided him throughout his life. This book is a fictional biography of Socrates attempting to shed light to his peculiar habits, valor and source of wisdom unparalleled in history. Could it be that this daemon was also the source of Socrates' wisdom? Read the book to find out.
