I have written this book with the hope that it may benefit anyone who happens to read it. But I have especially written it for the benefit of African Americans. This book is my legacy, my contribution and my down payment for the space I have occupied on the planet earth. If by writing his book I can help one person, I feel that I will have accomplished something in life, and my living will not have been in vain.

All the lessons in this book have come from the things that I have personally experienced. I have “talked the walk” and “walked the talk.” I have put my heart and soul into writing this book, and this is my life that I am sharing with you.
