Wouldn't it be great if the day you became a Christian all of your struggles and temptations simply vanished? The problem is, that didn't happen. Even though you are now in Christ, many of your old thought patterns are still the same as they used to be. But there is hope. Christ came to set captives free. This book is about the tools God has provided to enable people to live the pure and godly life to which He has called them. The truth is that God has provided everything that we need for both life and godliness (2 Peter 1:3). Will you commit to utilizing all God has provided for you to be able to return to innocence and cultivate passion for purity? If so, this book is for you.
