A masterpiece that is not likely to be forgotten by its readers - a brilliant devastating child's eyes portrait of the ordinary day in the ordinary school. Bringing together 28 illus. and their individual styles. Albert Cullum uses his experience as a teacher to create a picture book that highlights the gulf between adult and child. Each illustration depicts a familiar scene from the classroom with the text echoing the child's thoughts. At times amusing, always evocative, this book is sure to remind every reader of his or her childhood.
