Men of Covenant: Oaths, Covenants, and Transcendent Promises Robert L. Millet

We are a covenant-making people, but do we fully appreciate the power of the promises contained in just twelve short verses of the oath and covenant of the priesthood? Following Men of Valor and Men of Influence, Robert Millet explores the power, scope, and responsibilities of the priesthood in Men of Covenant. As we consider the promises Melchizedek Priesthood holders make to God and God's irrevocable promise to faithful priesthood holders, we discover the incomparable blessings that are available to those who magnify their calling and live by every word of God.

Every chapter of Men of Covenant explores a particular facet of D&C 84:33-44. While the book is written primarily to men, the lessons it teaches and the principles of covenant-keeping it elucidates are just as relevant to the women of the Church, because exaltation is a family affair, and it is achieved as a husband and a wife, working together, enjoy the sweet fruits of the priesthood here and thereby qualify for the fullness of priesthood blessings hereafter.
