Action, light fantasy, romance . . .

She plays from memory. Her memories.

The day after her sixteenth birthday, Princess Alia finds out that she's been given away in marriage to a man she's never met. The war has just ended, and for Alia's protection, she must travel to her future kingdom disguised as a chicken farmer's daughter. This princess-to-pauper story is filled with problems, prayers and plenty of piano. Part one and two are combined in paperback. In 2016, the Counterfeit Princess series continues with Alia's sister, Wren. The author is aiming for July - God willing.
