"Who is Mister White?"

That's the final, ominous warning delivered from the other end of a static-laced phone line to Abel, an agent employed by a mysterious US intelligence organization in Austria. Little does Abel know that hanging up on the mysterious caller begins a series of moves in a dangerous game of chess that sends him first to a fateful meeting in a snow-covered Vienna cemetery and then running for his life..

In the shadowy world of international espionage and governmental black ops when a group of American spies go bad and are pursued by the unrelenting Mister White, Abel finds that his fate may be sealed in this short story from acclaimed author John C. Foster "MISTER WHITE: THE SHORT STORY," the Kindle Single that inspired the upcoming full-length novel of global intrigue, MISTER WHITE: THE NOVEL, coming in April 2016.

Available on its own for the first time ever, "MISTER WHITE: THE SHORT STORY" plunges Abel into a brutal adventure that threatens not only his life but also those of everyone around him.

Exhibiting a writing style that has been called a blend of Robert McCammon and Raymond Chandler, "MISTER WHITE: THE SHORT STORY" highlights Foster's innate ability to seamlessly mesh elements of horror, noir, occult and suspense thrillers into his terrifying fiction.

Experience "MISTER WHITE: THE SHORT STORY" today and get a preview of the terrifying things to come. But remember, whatever you do... Do not speak his name...
