WAKR Weekly Music Charts: 1962 - 1967 Frank W. Hoffmann

WAKR was a leading Top 40 AM radio outlet in the Akron market during the 1960s. This volume reproduces the station's pop music surveys from the 1962-1967 period. Also includes a concise historical sketch of the station. Like the other radio charts titles, my goal was to provide a convenient chronological compilation of weekly surveys with corrections of the considerable errors found in both the original sources and in translation to online sites. These radio charts – which exist in the public domain – can be found in a multitude of sources, including original published sheets distributed via retail outlets, mail inquiries, etc., notation of on-air broadcasts, back issues of area newspapers (where stations are located) and music trade periodicals, specialized reference books, and websites interested in historical documentation, most notably, Oldieslooon, musicradio77, and ARSA. I employed multiple sources in the compilation of each radio chart volume in order to provide the most accurate data possible.

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart or real their leisure activity. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
