From the USA Today bestselling author of the Campus Players series, Allie K. Adams writes in the wonderful world of Barbara Freethy's Callaways.

He wants to escape his past. She wants to turn back the hands of time.

A senior in high school, Brody Campbell can't wait to escape the hell he calls his childhood. Despite his love for Josie Callaway, he can't stay. Even though he promises to wait for her, the nightmares are too much and he runs away. She's devastated and vows to never forgive him for breaking her heart.

Fast forward to ten years later. Josie Callaway is a struggling San Francisco real estate agent with one foot in bankruptcy court. Brody inherits a house he doesn't want and that forces him from his home in Montana back to face the nightmares of growing up in San Francisco. He enlists Josie as his real estate agent to not only sell his house but to silence his demons.

When the two of them meet again, old sparks ignite into an inferno. Can they find the love they once had? Or has the years and history between them destroyed their chance at their happily ever after?
