Synopsis

Luchi “Mark” Blaze is a successful business owner from Los Angeles California. After creating his own record label, and signing some of LA’s grimmest but yet talents rappers to his label landed him a hundred million dollar a year salary. Although he was successful, he had a problem finding a true love. As young as he could remember, he always ended up heart broken, but always continued to look. In this story Luchi talks about his life on how he deals with fame, and the blinded love that comes with it.
