Love In An Elevator

"Could you hold that door for me please?"

Eight simple little words, inherently harmless, but they're about to change the course of my life in a way I might never have expected. I'm a successful woman, with a high paying, respectable job, but at present I find myself in a broken down elevator, stuck between two men who happen to have held very similar, but distinct roles in my life.

On my right, Harry, my superior, an older gentleman who seduced me during my early days at the company, and who taught me everything I know.

On my left, Mark, my subordinate, who shares an equivalent role in my life, sexually and professionally.

And as the three of us remain trapped in the tension of our extended elevator ride, things began to grow very, very complicated for us...

This book contains adult themes, harsh language, and is not intended for under eighteen.
