A Wife's Correction Emily Tilton

After an abrupt change in the planet Harmonia's government, laws are put into place which alarm twenty-eight-year-old attorney Martha Allen Ames. From now on, every husband will have the right and the responsibility to correct his wife when her behavior warrants it and to teach her to surrender herself to him completely in the marital bed.

Though Martha holds out hope that her own husband, Ben, will not be too strict in his application of the new laws, he proves more than ready to apply the strap and the paddle to her bare backside when she fails to obey him. But she quickly discovers that an occasional sore bottom is far from all that Ben has planned for her, and soon Martha is both blushing crimson and begging for more as her husband takes her hard and thoroughly, enjoying her in ways he never has before.

Despite her shame and defiance, Ben's mastery of her body leaves Martha burning with passion, and his dominance increases with each passing day. But even as her desire for her husband catches fire, the couple must prepare to demonstrate Martha's newfound obedience and submission to convince a skeptical government that she has been well and truly corrected.

Publisher's Note: A Wife's Correction is an erotic romance novel that includes spankings, sexual scenes, anal play, exhibitionism, elements of BDSM, and more. If such material offends you, please don't buy this book.
