Let's face it; the "experts" who get the publicity, fame, credibility and major media exposure are the professionals who've published their book. With tens of thousands of competitors in your field, the top 5% have a book that exponentially increases their following and presence in the marketplace.

The top 1% have a best-selling book, a public profile, recognizable brand and bankable value. Being an author can catapult your enterprise and reputation onto a national and international platform that will outlast your lifetime.

Strategically creating high influence and a broad reach requires not only a book, but also a sophisticated marketing, focused promotion and seamless distribution plan.

Like most professionals, however, you're busy. You've no doubt thought dozens of times, "I should write a book." If only you had the capacity and the time to manage such a large-scale undertaking.

You know a book would elevate your business and your brand to rock-star status. But the reality entails...

- Endless hours of painstaking writing, revisions and proofing.
- Finding and collaborating with an editor for months after the writing is completed.
- Managing a dedicated team to deliver your design, layout, proof and PR.
- Hiring a team to promote a national marketing campaign.
- Allocating several hours every day for months on end, even after your book is published.

What if there was a smart alternative? What if you could share your unique life story, philosophy and success strategies through a book that:

- Is compelling, unique and highly marketable.
- Gets you and your message out to the world effectively.
- Is written, published and market-ready in about 100 days.
- Has a built-in publishing deal from the start.
- Will be distributed on www.amazon.com and dozens of other sites.
