The Cinnamon Colt: and other stories Joseph Brown

I was a full-time cowboy when I wrote these stories. Nothing made me FEEL better than to see a cow baling off a hill trying to get away and me ready to stop her. Nothing made my heart beat more pleasurably than the moment when I turned my horse toward home in the evening. Nothing has ever been better for me than cowboying and writing about it.

Writing is a gamble. We put everything on the line and hope to keep on living after that. Everything I believe and love about horses, cattle and people were gambled in these stories.
